What is NDIS?

The NDIS (National Disability Insurance Scheme) is a new and effective way to provide personalised support and care to people with disabilities and their families and carers. It has been designed to provide reliable support to people with a permanent or partial disability to perform their daily activities without any hassle.

Through the NDIS, you get the support you need to live your life. These supports will help you with everything including, health and wellbeing, education, employment, independence and involvement in your community. The NDIS gives you the certainty that you will get the support for your lifetime.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

To be eligible for NDIS, one must be:

- Under 65 years of age.
- Permanent resident or citizen of Australia.
- Permanently impaired or condition is likely to be permanent for whole life.

NDIS FUNDS FOR:

- Help with household task and personal activities
- Vehicle and home modifications
- Mobility equipment and assistive technology
- Transport to be involved in community, social and employment activities
- Therapies related to the disability

NDIS DOESN'T FUND FOR:

- Supports that are not related to a person's disability
- Supports that are funded by a different mechanism or system, such as Medicare or the health system
- Day-to-day living costs that everyone pays for such as food, electricity and water
- Things that may cause harm
